

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 11, 1883.

CHEBOYGAN MATTERS.

No more free bus. If anybody busses you it costs.

The filling in of the school house lot greatly improves its appearance.

Lorenzo Backus is getting the brick on the ground for his new block.

Fools are not all dead yet. Another man proposes to tackle the Niagara whirlpool.

The boiler has been placed in W. S. Smith's new tug, and her planking is nearly all on.

For printing of all kinds, call at the TRIBUNE job rooms. We can suit you in styles and prices.

The masons have completed the brick work of Dr. Gerow's new block, and the building shows up for itself.

Wm. S. Smith sold the tug T. M. Bradley last Saturday to Henry Swartz and Albert LeGault. Consideration $1,500.

The banking company struck good weather for excavating for the basement and foundation of their new bank building.

The weather this week has been very favorable for building operations, and good use has been made of the opportunity.

Marshal Lynn complains of dull times lately, and says that comparatively few arrests are made, which speaks well for the good order preserved in Cheboygan.

Farmers must not forget the county fair. Cheboygan expects every man to do his duty. Farmers, don't forget that upon you depends the success of the exhibit.

What has become of the committee appointed by the council, sometime since, to investigate harbor matters and report as to the necessity of having a harbor master.

Teachers Institute for Cheboygan Co. opens next Monday at the graded school building. Every teacher in the county should try and be present and attend every session.

The grade of the sidewalks on Main street, above Court street, have been lowered to correspond with the new grade of the street and new sidewalks are being put down.

The Methodists are workers; they merit and meet success, a Jubilee concert, and excursion in one week, with the exchequer largely replenished, nobody hurt and everybody glad.

The Baptist church had an eloquent and sensible discourse on last Sunday from Rev. C. R. Henderson, of Detroit, after which the holy ordinance of Baptism was administered to four persons.

The Independent Church was permitted to be one year old last Sunday, and feels, if any church should be thankful, for what has been done in one year, the friends of this organization should and are.

Messrs. Robinson & Thompson have commenced work on the woodshed for the water works. The engineers think it will be a long distance to wheel wood from the lower end of it to the boiler room.

The excursion on the propeller Messenger to Cross Village, Wednesday, was well attended, everybody had a good time, and the result was a handsome benefit, financially, for the M. E. Sunday school.

The Episcopalians have made arrangements for an excursion to Mackinac on the magnificent new steamer City of Mackinac the first trip she arrives up during the day. Everybody will want to take a ride in the new boat.

No more free busses to and from the hotels. This is by mutual agreement of Messrs. French and Spencer, both finding the free bus business more expensive than beneficial. C. A. Smolk is to have full control of the bus business.

A Democratic jury acquitted Dorsey who was prosecuted by Republicans for swindling the government, and is now in full communion with Democrats, who love him and Hoadly, Butler, and any other man unfit for Republican service, that demands ability, efficiency, and honesty.

Rev. L. P. Davis, of West Bay City, will preach in the Methodist church tomorrow morning and evening, and conduct quarterly meeting services. Love feast at 9:30 a. m.; Sacrament of the Lord's Supper after the morning sermon. Mr. Davis is a very interesting speaker, and we bespeak for him a full house.

Capt. R. H. Mosier is preparing to build more dock for S. F. Tolma, at Hammond's bay. He is going to put in two more cribs, which will, in addition to the docks already in, greatly improve the harbor at that point. Mr. Tolma has brought down his fishing tug Mary A. Day, with his fishing crew and outfit, from Lake Superior and stationed them at the bay, and expects to have a successful catch this fall at that point.

Business is as lively in Cheboygan as in any town in the state.

That tower at the Town Hall continues to tower, another step being added this week.

The grading and graveling of Main street has greatly improved that thoroughfare.

J. J. Cuany received another car load of flour, 125 barrels, on the Champlain yesterday.

The night police gathered in quite a harvest of drunks and disorderlies Thursday night.

Tuesday night by vote of the council the time for the collection of the village taxes was extended sixty days.

Service at the Independent church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Good music, and all are made welcome.

The wheat harvest in Cheboygan county has commenced, and the luxuriant crop makes the farmers smile.

Mrs. Carter, east side of river, last Tuesday presented her husband with a pair of twins, a boy and a girl. All doing well.

Watts S. Humphrey's horses, Mollie Harris and Wm. T., arrived home last Monday, and will remain in Cheboygan for the present.

The fire department made good time last Saturday night in answering the alarm from the Farmer House, but their services were not needed.

There is talk of another meeting of the Shore Trotting Circuit, commencing at Cheboygan and taking in the different tracks composing the circuit.

Telephone cards were printed at the TRIBUNE Job rooms, where all work is executed according to order, and not to suit the whims of would be critics.

The Michigan Central must be doing a good freight business if we can judge from the long trains of freight cars that pass through Cheboygan both ways. Their local trade here is good.

We do not pretend to know the amount of business other concerns are doing, but we do know that the business of the TRIBUNE Job office is in every way satisfactory, both to its patrons and owners.

In May 1844 Miss Annie Ellsworth sent to Mr. Morse the first transmitted message over telegraphic wire connecting remote points, the message "What hath God wrought?" can always be asked in view of the wonderful developments of human progress, and certain misdevelopments would suggest the query "what hath ignorance wrought?"

Commercial travelers are heavily taxed in some localities in order to extingish them, but we cannot see the justice of exacting a high license from the "drummer" who renders good service in many ways, is properly employed, in a legitimate business, and sooner or later Congress will pass a law rendering null and void the penalty placed upon these traveling missionaries.

Democrats are not scoundrels or idiots, for in all things save politics they are all right, good citizens, whole-souled, progressive people as we have, and to be misrepresented by euteness, smartness, and cunning, that never rises higher than the grimaces, contortions, and pranks of the missing link, is a cross to bear that sometimes vexes the righteous souls of our good Democratic brethren.

The people of Cheboygan get their mail in the evening, through the kindness of the Postmaster, the law does not require him to keep open so late as is required to distribute the evening mail, but Mr. Humphrey being a genuine Republican, is true to the instinct and purpose of honesty, faithfulness, and also the spirit of accommodation. It is so whenever you find Republicans in office, but they don't accommodate rascals in the penitentiary by letting them out, like Begole and Blackburn are doing.

From a pleasure ride on yesterday, having gathered grasses and flowers, that had been tended by the Divine Florist, we returned to our work, and beheld on the editor's table an exquisite bouquet of rarest fragrance, choicest loveliness and perfect arrangement. As we breathed the aromatic essences of the gorgeously arranged relics of Eden, the words of Schiller came:

"Foster the beautiful, and every hour
Thou call'st new flowers to birth."

Thanks to Mrs. J. H. Waterman, whose kindness of heart always leads to the the good act, for the present.

W. H. Daniels was quite successful in getting signers to the paper mentioned last week, pledging co-operation in a movement looking to improvement of Cheboygan, and encouraging the establishment of additional manufacturing industries. A public meeting to perfect an organization has been called for next Monday evening, at the council room, at 8 o'clock sharp. It is hoped that there will be a general attendance of all citizens interested in the prosperity and growth of Cheboygan. Such an association properly managed can accomplish much good.

Probate Order.

STATE of Michigan, County of Cheboygan.—AT a session of the Probate Court for said county, held at the Probate office, in the village of Cheboygan, on the 10th day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Present, Edwin Z. Perkins, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of William J. Trites, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Mary A. Trites, praying among other things that administration of said estate may be granted to said Mary A. Trites.

Thereupon it is ordered that Monday, the 3rd day of September next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be held in the Probate office, in the village of Cheboygan, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Northern Tribune, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A true copy) EDWIN Z. PERKINS, Judge of Probate.
